

NOTICE OF OFFER OF AUTHORSHIP OF STATEMENT ADVOCATING VOTER APPROVAL OR REJECTION OF KPB PROPOSITIONS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE 2011 VOTER PAMPHLET
--

If you are a publicly recognized individual or organization with a stated interest in one of the following propositions, you may submit a statement advocating for voter approval or rejection to be included in the October 4, 2011 Regular Municipal Election Voter Pamphlet:

- KPB Proposition No. 1: Repeal Of the Seasonal Sales Tax Exemption on Non-Prepared Food Items (Ordinance 2011-03)
- KPB Proposition No. 2: Increasing Borough Sales Tax From 3.0 To 3.1 Percent With The Additional 0.1 Percent To Be Used For Economic Development Purposes (Ordinance 2011-23)
- KPB Proposition No. 3: Apportionment of the Assembly and Board of Education (Ordinance 2011-25)
- KPB Proposition No. 4: Abolishing the Lowell Point Emergency Service Area (Ordinance 2011-27)
- KPB Proposition No. 5: Establishing the Seldovia Recreational Service Area (Ordinance 2011-28)

Pursuant to KPB 4.10.110(B), The Kenai Peninsula Borough Clerk is offering authorship of statements for inclusion in the October 4, 2011 Election Voter Pamphlet.

The deadline to submit statements is August 19, 2011 at 5:00 p.m.

The statement submitted may not exceed 500 words.

The statement submitted to the Clerk's Office must be accompanied by a statement of interest in the proposition by the publicly recognized individual or organization.

The statement must include a signer's block located at the bottom of the statement. The signer's block must include no more than three signers. Any signers, more than the allotted three, will be considered endorsements and included in the text of the statement and counted against the 500-word limit. Signers must include the signer's full names and organizations, if any.

Signers shall sign a form prepared by the clerk indicating that the signers participated in the drafting of the statement. Forms are available at the Borough Clerk's Office at 144 N. Binkley Street, Soldotna and the Borough's website at <http://www.borough.kenai.ak.us/AssemblyClerk>. Statements will not be released until all statements regarding the question have been received in final form and have gone to the printer.

Statements advocating both approval and rejection must be accepted by the clerk in order to be published. If only one statement is received, it will not be published.

THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH CLERK'S OFFICE WILL TAKE NO POSITION IN ADVOCATING APPROVAL OR REJECTION OF A PROPOSITION.
