KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH

RESOLUTION 82-54

COMMENDING THE SCHOOL DISTRICT AND THE SOLDOTNA HIGH SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION FOR THEIR EFFORTS IN ORGANIZING AND HOSTING THE STATE BOYS HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT.

WHEREAS, the Kenai Peninsula was the scene of the State Boys High School Basketball Tournament which featured all of the major finalists throughout the State of Alaska; and

WHEREAS, the Soldotna High School was chosen as the host school; and

WHEREAS, the facilities, organization, administration and planning activities were worthy of the highest commendation by participants and spectators alike; and

WHEREAS, the school personnel and the business community and business clubs all contributed to the success of this significant distinction which was accorded the community; and

WHEREAS, the Assembly wishes to acknowledge the dedicated efforts which were necessary to accomplish the smooth running and well-organized tournament and related activities and entertainment.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH:

Section 1. That the School Board administration and Soldotna High School Principal James Strandlie together with his administration and faculty, are commended for their organizing, setting up, and carrying out with great success the many details and related activities in connection with the State Boys High School Basketball Tournament which was held at the Soldotna High School on March 4, 5 and 6, 1982.

Section 2. The Assembly recognizes the contributions of Vice Principal Lee Johnson, who shared much of the responsibility connected with the tournament and the active promotion and support of the Soldotna High School Booster Club, Soldotna High School Cheerleaders, individuals, as well as participation by numerous businesses in Soldotna and the area.

Section 3. A copy of this resolution shall be presented to Dr. Fred H. Pomeroy, Superintendent of Schools, to Mr. Jim McConnell, President of the Chamber of Commerce, to Dr. Dick

McCartan, President of the Rotary Club, and to Mr. Jack Cline,
President of the Booster Club.

ADOPTED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH ON
THIS 6th DAY OF April, 1982.

John C. Davis, Assembly President
