KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH

RESOLUTION 83-53

PROTESTING THE RENEWAL OF 1983 LIQUOR LICENSES TO ~~ROCK-N-ROLL CLINIC/KING GEORGE HOTEL,~~ AND TO CLAM GULCH LIQUOR STORE FOR FAILURE TO REMIT SALES TAXES TO THE BOROUGH.

WHEREAS, Title 4 of the Alaska Statutes provides that a municipality may protest the renewal or transfer of a liquor license until the licensee has paid all due and delinquent taxes; and

WHEREAS, the licensees for the Rock-N-Roll Clinic/King George Hotel (current License No. 82-0608), and Clam Gulch Liquor Store (current License No. 82-0238) have failed to pay delinquent sales taxes; and

WHEREAS, the Assembly desires to protest the reissuance of these liquor licenses until such time as all due and delinquent taxes have been paid in full;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH:

Section 1. That the Assembly protests the renewal or reissuance of the beverage dispensary license for the Rock-N-Roll Clinic/King George Hotel (License No. 82-0608), located in the Wildwood Facility Building #16; and the Assembly protests the renewal or reissuance of the beverage dispensary license for the Clam Gulch Liquor Store (License No. 82-0238), located in Ninilchik, Alaska.

Section 2. That the Clerk is directed to distribute copies of this resolution to Patrick Sharrock, Executive Director, State of Alaska, Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

Section 3. That this resolution takes effect immediately upon its adoption.

ADOPTED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH ON THIS _____ DAY OF _____, 1983.

Donald L. McCloud, Assembly President
