KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH

RESOLUTION 84-158

ADOPTING A POLICY OF PROTESTING LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATIONS BY APPLICANTS FOUND TO BE IN VIOLATION OF BOROUGH SALES TAX AND PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX ORDINANCES AND REGULATIONS.

WHEREAS, 15 AAC 104.145 of the Alaska Administrative Code allows a local governing body to protest an application for liquor license based upon a general public policy, and

WHEREAS, the enforcement of borough sales tax and personal property tax ordinances is an expensive and time consuming function diverting borough resources from other positive governmental activities, and

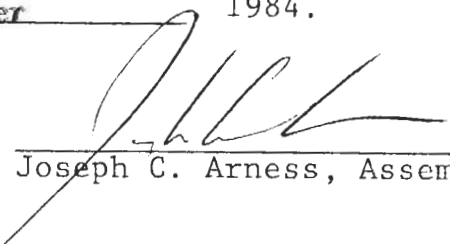

WHEREAS, the assembly finds that the privilege to sell liquor for profit should not be allowed to individuals who fail to file and remit sales and personal property taxes in a timely manner as required by borough ordinances.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH.

Section 1. That the Assembly shall cause a protest to be filed with the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board on any and all applications submitted for a new or renewal license for sale of alcoholic beverages within the borough where borough records indicate that the applicant is in violation of the borough sales tax and/or personal property tax ordinances and regulations.

Section 2. That this resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption.

ADOPTED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH ON THIS 25th DAY OF September 1984.
